6. Online Registration System for Korea goes live

National Scout Organizations have begun to register their participants for the World Scout Conference and World Scout Youth Forum using the new online registration system, previously announced in the RegistrationKit information:

http://scout.org/en/content/download/10427/86914/file/RegKitInfo_EN.pdf

To use the system, NSOs must appoint a contact person using this form:

Koraljka Cvitanic was among the first to use the new system to register Croatia's participants: "Yes, it's pretty easy to register and I prefer on-line registration. Less paper and forms. :) I guess it will be even better for big delegations. Everything is previewed and in one place."

7. Clean Up the World

Circular No. 8/2008 contains information on an Allies Partnership between WOSM and Clean Up the World to further enhance our commitment to environmental education and positive action for the environment.

The circular can be downloaded from:

http://www.scout.org/circulars2008/circular_n_08_march_2008

8. Bronze Wolf Awards

The WSC has awarded the Bronze Wolf to the following Scouters in recognition of their outstanding services of the most exceptional character to World Scouting:

- William (Bill) Cockcroft, U.K.
- William F. (Rick) Cronk, U.S.A.
- Lalit Mohan Jain, India
- Yongyudh Vajiradhul, Thailand.

The awards will be presented at the World Scout Conference in Korea.

9. Work in Kandersteg International Scout Centre

Want to spend three months having the time of your life in the Swiss Alps? Make international friendships that will last a life time? Spend your days having fun - and all for World Scouting??

Then why not be part of the Staff Team at Kandersteg International Scout Centre (KISC)? The staff are a team of international volunteers, Scouts and Guides, who run the World Centre in Switzerland. Working in KISC is an amazing experience. It is a chance to explore the Alps and make life long friends; while all the time having fun!

Short Term Staff

Every 3 months a new group of Scouts arrive at the Centre as strangers and leave, 3 months later, as friends. These volunteers are known as Short Term Staff (STS) and work in every area of the Centre, helping where needed. The next round of applications for Short Term Staff is due on June 15th to begin work on September 13th. The Autumn Staff will be involved in all aspects of running the Chalet, catering for anything up to 250 guests, maintenance of buildings and campsite as well as running activities for Scouts and Guides from all around the world.

Long Term Staff

Have you been Short Term Staff before? Or want to dedicate more time to World Scouting? Then see if one of our Long Term Positions suits you. The positions range from 9 to 15 months in length and specific details can be found on our website for jobs beginning from September this year. These jobs are in areas ranging from Reception and Programme to Catering.

Deputy Director position

Also available on our website is details of the position of Deputy Director for Internal Services beginning in June 2008. This position is for 36 months and is part of the Senior Management Team of the Centre who is responsible for the Internal Services Department.

For details of all positions, Short and Long Term, please visit the KISC website:
