

OPTIONAL VISITS AND ACCOMPANYING PERSONS PROGRAMME

DAY/DATE	PERSONS	PLACE	TIME	WHAT TO SEE	COST PER HEAD $
Sunday 8TH November (Optional)	For early arrivals & interested youth	Akosombo Hydro Electric Plant and Sunday cruise on the Dodi island	9am -4pm	Tour of dam site of the stone -faced Akosombo Dam and Hydro Electric Plant followed by a delightful cruise (with live band music and BBQ) on the majestic Volta Lake on board the" MV Dodi Princess " to Dodi Island , one of the many little islands in the lake	$65
9^h November 2009 Monday	All accompanying persons	Traditional Palace visit	11-4pm	A visit to the palace of the traditional chief and head of the Ga (Accra) traditional area himself an old scout. An opportunity to gain insight into traditional Ghanaian protocol .continue to the Kwame Nkrumah memorial Park and mausoleum (KNMP) – , - the third and final resting place of Ghana’s illustrious first President and well known pan Africanist. Explore the cultural and historical significance of the park which is situated on the old colonial polo grounds – which became the official site of the declaration of Ghana’s independence Arts Centre- the traditional textile market of the Centre for National Culture with its profusion of art and craft and curio shops and open bazaar After LUNCH return to the hotel driving through the Liberation Circle viewing the monument of African Union

10th November 2009 Tuesday	All accompanying persons	TEMA CITY TOUR	TEMA CITY TOUR *Cocoa Processing Company	A drive through the Ridge area to the stadium unto the 28th February crossroads, the independence ark, en route to visit the OMANYE HOUSE-The impressive Artists' Alliance Gallery with an opportunity to buy art directly from the artist. Continue for a tour of the port city of Tema driving through the beach road viewing en route the innovative coffin makers of Nungua. After Lunch drive back to Accra through the Tema Motorway built by our first president
11th November 2009 Wednesday	All accompanying persons	*University Botanical Gardens-Walking in the garden and the University of Ghana -Join delegates later	10am-4pm
12th November 2009 Thursday	All accompanying persons	*Accra City	All day till 2pm conference 4-5pm	Visit to OMANYE HOUSE - the impressive Artists' Alliance Gallery with an opportunity to buy art directly from the artist. Continue along the La road to the 28th February crossroads the independence arch, circle and square to the textile section of the Makola market continue to the National Museum- a two tier rotunda of artifacts and collections from all over West Africa. After Lunch at Country Kitchen continue to the hotel
13th November 2009 Friday OPTIONAL	All delegates and accompanying persons	*Cape Coast *Kakum National Park or *Kumasi Manhyia Palace	All day	A memorable encounter with nature and history as we visit Option 1 a) the Unesco World Heritage Monuments - the ancient castles of Cape Coast with canons still pointing seaward and other relics of European exploration and trade rivalry dating back to the 15th century and b) the 360km² Kakum Park and its thrilling	$75

				"top of the world" feeling and experience of a canopy walkway -a series of 7 rope bridges suspended 30metres above the ground! Option 2- Kumasi The Manhyia Palace – the official residence of the fabled Asantehenes- Asante kings since 1926. See the Palace Museum -the museum of Asante royal history.The origin of the left handshake in scouting.	$80
14th November 2009 Saturday OPTIONAL	All delegates and accompanying persons	*Cape Coast Castle Or *City Visit To Accra *Art Centre *Makola Market	All day	Option 1 the Unesco World Heritage Monuments - the ancient castle of Cape Coast with canons still pointing seaward and other relics of European exploration and trade rivalry dating back to the 15th century Option 2 A city tour of Accra- Ghana's vibrant political, social and commercial capital sites include the modernized old Makola market with its colorful array of all manner of items and goods .The African textile section is a must! the KNMP – , - the third and final resting place of Ghana's illustrious first President and well known pan Africanist Explore the cultural and historical significance of the park which is situated on the old colonial polo grounds – which became the official site of the declaration of Ghana's independence Arts Centre- the traditional textile market of the Centre for National Culture with its profusion of art and craft curio shops and open bazaar	$ 75 $45