

Become EVS volunteer in the Brussels? office!

Author: Nicolo Pranzini

Saved From : www.scout.org

European Voluntary Service (EVS) is a fantastic opportunity for young people. Through the Youth in Action Programme they can experience a volunteering period in a country other than their own.

The Region will now open a position for one young person (18-25 years old) that would like to commit her/him self to volunteer in the European Regional Office in Brussels.

The work of the volunteer will be focused on the preparation of the European Scout Conference 2010 and on the support of Brussels Office working areas - External Relations and Funding.

In order to get funds to host the volunteer, the WSB-ERO will submit a funding application for the European Voluntary Service to the Executive Agency 1 of the European Commission responsible for the Youth in Action Programme September 2009.

To candidate her/him self as a volunteer, you should send by email to amasson@scout.org your organisation, a motivation letter from the candidate and her/his CV.

Candidatures have to be sent no later than 29 July 2009.

For further information see the entire circular and volunteer position description attached.
