Blumenau (Brazil), February 5th 2010 ? After a stop in Curitiba, four youth advisors of the World Scout Committee, arrived yesterday evening in Blumenau, where the 11th Youth Forum will take place.

Their task is to prepare the content of the forum. They are accompanied by Mario Diaz Martinez, Vice Chairman of the World Scout Committee and Ricardo Struber, Forum Director. They are assisted by staff from the World Scout Bureau who will supervise questions related to the programme and logistics. On Thursday, during the meeting with the President of the Municipal Parliament of Curitiba, Mario Diaz insisted on the fact that ?education in favor of youth constitutes the best investment for the future?.
