

Meeting for Chief Executive Officers in National Scout Organisations and Member Organisations

Aims and Content

The aim of the meeting is to provide an opportunity for senior staff in Associations to come together and share experiences, challenges and questions.

In addition, if identified by participants as a need we will identify one or two external experts who could join the meeting on a particular topic – these could range from European Funding issues, Lobbying issues, communications, change management or on a general topic such as globalization and its impact on youth work.

Priority Areas

Staff development and exchange

Suggested follow up by participants and their associations

- Participants should be ready to network with their colleagues across the region.

Participants Profile

- Chief Executives
- Secretary Generals of Associations and/or their deputies. This is not a meeting for project officers or international secretaries.
