

Network Meeting for Guide & Scout Representatives in National Youth Councils

Participants at the last event

Aims and Content

- Discuss issues of mutual relevance and other important topics
- Strengthen existing and form new networks to develop the influencing role of Guiding and Scouting
- Co-ordinate the approach to Youth Policy in Europe
- Provide training for National and European representatives
- Motivate participants for further involvement in Youth structures

Priority Areas

- Relationship to Society/External Relations

Suggested follow up by participants and their associations

- Participants should be ready to network within their own youth structures and to share in WAGGGS and WOSM external policy discussions.

Participants Profile

- The participants for the meeting of the National Youth Structures should represent a National Association in a National Youth Council. Please allow us to insist on the fact that this meeting is intended for people who are already really involved in their National Youth Council.
