

Networking Forum for Chief Volunteers

Aims and Content

Following the success of the Network Meeting for Chief Executive Officers in Associations and linking to suggestions made at the 12th European Guide and Scout Conference it is planned to hold a networking meeting for the senior volunteer leaders in Associations. This will provide an opportunity for networking, sharing challenges and successes and identifying training needs or potential co-operation.

Priority Areas

- Leadership Development

Suggested follow up by participants and their associations

- Participants should be willing to network with their fellow senior leaders as and when required.

Participants Profile

- Chief Guides, Chief Scouts, Chief Commissioners, their deputies and other senior volunteers in positions of strategic leadership.
