

Euro-Arab Meeting

Participants at the last event

Aims and Content

To continue the building of partnerships between Associations in both regions, through concrete actions in the field of youth programme development, joint training, sharing good practices and with a special emphasis on growth.

Specific objectives:

- Share information on funding opportunities, especially actions supported by the Youth in Action Programme of the European Union and other funders
- Further develop advice on youth exchanges and sharing pedagogic materials
- Developing resource material to promote growth and diversity in Scouting
- Review the outcomes from the last Euro-Arab meeting
- Receiving proposals and deciding the venue of the next meeting in 2010
- Such elements as proposed by the Arab Region and Associations

Priority Areas

- All priorities of the European Scout Plan

Suggested follow up by participants and their associations

- Sharing information to encourage further positive exchanges between European and Arab NSOs, exchange of educational material and other support material.

Participants Profile

Participants should be:

- Members of the national or international teams of their Associations interested in strengthening relationships and partnerships between the Arab and European Regions.
- Able to communicate in English and/or French and/or Arabic.
