Creating a Better World

Serving and supporting you

Developing and growing Scouting

The World Scout Bureau – European Regional Office, often referred to simply as the European Scout Office, is at the service of National Scout Organisations and National Scout Associations in the European Scout Region.

The European Regional Office is located in Geneva, Switzerland with two smaller satellite offices in Brussels, Belgium and Belgrade, Serbia.

All offices deliver support to associations. Sometimes this is provided directly, and at other times, it is provided through seminars, events and networking opportunities. Advice is also available by email and `phone as well.

The offices also play a vitally important role in supporting and implementing the decisions of the European Scout Committee.

We'll be pleased to welcome you

Improving our services

We're constantly striving to improve our services and support. If you have comments, ideas or suggestions, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

Our open door policy

All our offices have an open door policy. We're always willing to welcome and listen to associations who wish to come and visit. It's always helpful to make sure that we're 'in town' by contacting us in advance.

Staying in contact

If you're not able to visit us in person, you can always reach us by email, phone or online. Stay in contact.
