1. Meeting of the World Scout Committee, Geneva, Switzerland, 7-9 November 2008

The World Scout Committee (WSC) met in Geneva from 7-9 November 2008. The Chairman outlined his vision for the period up to the next World Scout Conference. He emphasised the need to focus on results, not just process, since there is only a short time before the next World Scout Conference, a little over two years away. More info:

2. Triennial Plan 2008-2011

The 38th World Scout Conference Resolution 10/08 requested "the World Scout Committee to adopt an action plan (for 3 years), in accordance with the human and financial resources of the organization, where priorities, responsibilities and resources are explicit; this plan should be sent to all National Scout Organizations no later than 6 months after the World Scout Conference." The World Scout Committee (WSC) approved the Triennial Plan 2008-2011 during its last Committee meeting in November 2008. More info:
