

German Agency support World Scouting operations

Author: Marcus Ljungblad
Saved From : www.scout.org

Eschborn, Germany, GTZ Headquarters ? 27 April 2005

Dr. Eduardo Missoni, the Secretary General of World Organization of the Scout Movement and Dr. Cornelia Richter, Director General of the Development and Planning Department of GTZ signed the Memorandum of Understanding between GTZ and WOSM. The evaluation of potentials and identification of the fields of cooperation has been analyzed by WOSM Project Officer Zurab Khamashuridze, from Georgia, who is on a 6-month project internship.

- exchange of information
- secondments ? exchange of staff
- networking
- formal and informal training activities
- concept development, methodology
- development and publication of materials (brochures, handbooks, etc.)
- common proposals to bi ? and multilateral donors
- joint cooperation with the private sector (companies, foundations, etc.)
- appraisals, evaluation of activities
- events leading to the centenary of Scouting 2007