Feeling like 'going international' this Winter? What about spending one week in Kandersteg International Scout Centre \(KISC\) for the New Year's International Rover Week 2012!

Although the temperature is going to be cool, the atmosphere is guaranteed to be warm and cosy!

Due to the success of the International Rover Week in August this year, a new edition is being organized from the 27th December 2011 to the 2nd January 2012. After having experienced the Alps in Summer and sunshine, this time you will live a true winter experience in a snow and ice landscape.

You will for example experience a hike, sled to Gemmipass, visit the sauna, have an international campfire in the snow and celebrate New Year's eve at KISC, just to name a few. During your stay you will be lodged in rooms in the Old Chalet ? no need to worry about sleeping outside in the cold!

The cost for the entire week is set at the very special price of 300 CHF (approx. 245?). Deadline for applications is 20th November 2011! Apply as soon as possible as the participation is limited to a total of 40 people
