Workshop 1: The Rover Scout Programme and the Scouts of the World Award

Date/Time: Sunday 13 July 2008, 14.00 ? 17.00 hours

Aim: To present the new Guidelines on the Rover Scout Programme to National Scout Organizations and demonstrate how the Scouts of the World Award can be implemented within the Rover Scout Programme.

Description: For Rover Scouts their most important challenge is to find their own way in life. They have to enter the job market and start a professional career; they have to prepare themselves for this and build and maintain positive relationships with both genders and with people of different ages. Finally, they have to learn how to take responsibilities in their communities as active citizens at local, national and international levels. Guidelines for the Rover Scout Section have been developed and these will be presented in this workshop with the Scouts of the World Award; which is an award to help young people become active citizens in their local, national and international communities.

Target Audience: National Programme Commissioners, Commissioners responsible for the Rover Scout age-range, Rover Scouts, Scouts aged 18-25.

This workshop will be led by João Armando Gonçalves (Portugal), Chairman of the Adolescents and Young Adults Task Team and supported by Andrés Morales, Unit Manager, Adolescents and Young Adults.

Workshop 3: Environment Education in Scouting and the World Scout Environment Badge

Date/Time: Sunday 13 July 2008, 14.00 ? 17.00 hours

Aim: To introduce Principles of Environment Education in Scouting and identify new opportunities for environment education through the Youth Programme, a proposed World Scout Environment Badge and SCENEs Centres. (Scout Centres of Excellence in Nature and the Environment).

Description: "Nature study is the key activity in Scouting and Guiding." - Baden Powell. The environment has always been an important part of the Scout Programme. Through a wide variety of outdoor activities Scouting provides opportunities for young people to experience and connect with the natural world. We need to ensure that Scouting also provides opportunities for young people to examine and understand the impact of their actions on both their local environment and the global environment. The environment is a truly global subject and Scouts is a truly global organisation. Through environmental education Scouting can really make a difference.

Target Audience: National Programme Commissioners, Commissioners responsible for the Environment, Scouts and Rover Scouts.

This workshop will be led by Lucy Mace (UK), Chairman of the Environment Education Task Team, supported by Rod Abson, Unit Manager, Environment Education and Information Management.

Participants will also have the chance to learn about taking advantage of new technologies in order to better promote our Scout values, develop new networking frameworks, identify external partnership and even discover together new sources of income from the corporate sector.

Workshop 5: Registration Fees

Date/Time: Sunday 13 July 2008, 14.00 ? 15.30 hours

Aim: To present and clarify the revisions to the Registration Fee system being proposed to the 38th World Scout Conference. See Conference Document No. 10.

Description: Participants will have the opportunity to discuss and ask questions concerning the proposed revisions to the Registration Fee system as described in Conference Document No. 10. The system comprises attempts to take into account a number of factors which affect the ability of NSOs to pay their registration fees to WOSM and is therefore quite complex. This workshop will enable participants to understand the proposal better and the constraints which have to be taken into account.

Target audience: Conference delegates including those with specific knowledge and/or interest in financial matters.

This workshop will be chaired by Habibul Alam, member of the WSC and chairman of the Registration Fee task force, and led by Luc Panissod, Acting Secretary General, and other members of the Registration Fee Task Force.
