

NJO Network

Autor: Richard Middelkoop
Saved From : www.scout.org

The network for National JOTA Organizers(NJO's) gives access to web pages with additional background information for the JOTA. These are meant for NJO's only and require a login.

If you are not an NJO, please return to the previous page.

Login to the NJO network

To login to the NJO network, please use the link below; it will bring you first to the login page.

>> Login to the NJO network here

After succesfull login, you will return to this page, but now you can access the additional web pages here

Join the NJO network

National JOTA Organizers, registered at the World Scout Bureau, can join the NJO network. The network will send regular information updates specifically for NJO's. It also facilitates direct contact between NJO's to exchange ideas and information and help eachother where needed.

Click to join the network here.

If your are an NJO registered at the World Scout Bureau and have not yet received your login and pasword, please contact the World JOTA Organizer
