

Burkina Faso: A Scout from Côte d'Ivoire attends the summer School of the Francophonie

Autor: Euloge Ishimwe

Saved From : www.scout.org

Mr. Aly Badra L. COULIBALY, the Assistant National Commissioner in charge of Administration and Communication (FIS/EEDCI - Côte d'Ivoire) is taking part in a summer School organized by the International organization of the Francophonie (OIF). The event started on August 8 and will end on August 14, 2009 in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso.

In his capacity as a delegate, Mr. Aly Badra, represents Scouts of his country (Côte d'Ivoire) in this activity that brought together 70 young civil society leaders of the from all the regions of the Francophonie.

For more information please download the attached press release (available only in French)

(With the permission of, Aly Badra L. COULIBALY)