The fourth bi-annual Namibian Scout Jamboree took place between the 26th and 30th of August, 2009 at the Cheetah Conservation Fund outside of Otjiwarongo. For four days, the Jamboree brought together 117 young men and women from 12 to 18 years of age to hike, learn survival and life skills, meet new friends, and share information between Scout groups in the country.

The programme was led by 32 Scout leaders and supplemented by CCF staff. Reinwaldt and Vera Dorgeloh handled logistics for the Jamboree. Most Scouts came from the north, and the rest came mostly from Tsumeb and Windhoek.

The Cheetah Conservation Fund is an organization dedicated to saving the cheetah and its environment through research, education, and conservation. They are partners with Scouts in Namibia,
