Due to lack of applications, the Swap-Shop workshop is canceled.

The Swap shop is a place where you can come and exchange your ideas and projects related to developing quality and quantity in your association.

Aims and Content

The Europe Region WAGGGS and the European Scout Region have noted the wish of Association to have more opportunities for the exchange of best practices and experiences. Therefore, WAGGGS and WOSM will be offering a joint ?SWAP SHOP? where Associations will have the opportunity to share their best practice and work with each other and to get new ideas and concepts in each of the working areas necessary for high quality Guiding and Scouting.

Priority Areas

- Educational Programme /Youth Programme
- Training/Adults in Scouting
- Structure and Management/Organisation for the 21st Century

Suggested follow up by participants and their associations All participants should be in a position to be able to feed what they have gathered into their own Association. At the same time, participants should be ready to share with other participants in the SWAP SHOP best practice of
