

SCOUTS[®]
Creating a Better World

World Organization of the Scout Movement
Organisation Mondiale du Mouvement Scout
Всемирная Организация Скаутского Движения
Organización Mundial del Movimiento Scout
المنظمة العالمية للحركة الكشفية

Scouts reach summit of Baden Powell Scout Peak!

Author: Vanessa Von der Muhll

Saved From : www.scout.org

Nepal - 13th September, 2007. The Baden Powell Scout Peak has today been summited by 15 Scouts. According to the message received directly from the base camp, the successful group includes 1 Australian, 7 Koreans, 3 Singaporeans, 1 Nepali & 3 Scouts of China.

The expedition send off ceremony was held on the 4th September and was officiated by Herman Hui, Chairman of the World Scout Committee, together with Minister of education and Sports and Chief Scout Pradip Nepal. Setting off on the climb were 31 Scouts from Australia, Hong Kong, Korea, Malaysia, Nepal, Singapore and Taiwan.

During his speech at the event, Mr Hui recognised the "great efforts and contributions made by the Scouts in Nepal in the naming process of the Lord Baden Powell Trek and Lord Baden Powell Peak and in the organization of the occasion." He went on to say that "this (the BP Trek and Peak) is really a big contribution to the success of World Scouting."

Here is one of the first pictures taken of the successful expedition!

